We're Fanatics About Customer Service

*"I wanted to thank you for your excellent customer service... Problem solved!
The ButtKicker totally rocks (lame ass pun intended).*

Your product and service exceeded all my expectations. I know you lost money on this sale but I can promise you that Guitammer has my very enthusiastic endorsement.

Anyone that talk's home theater with me will know how much I love this thing.

*Your product and customer service puts you in a league with the finest in AV equipment. For less than what some idiots pay for speaker cables, the ButtKicker provides a whole new dimension to the home theater experience.
A dimension not found in theaters.*

Stand proud! You have done an excellent job."

“In today's day and age, it's reassuring to know that your company provides excellent customer service. Thanks a lot...”

Tony M

“I would like to add that backing up your product like you do makes for loyal customers. When anyone asks, I tell them you're a great company with a great product.”

Richard P

“I just wanted to take a moment to let you and your staff know how much I appreciate your quick action and caring approach to your customer. Your company care policy is a rare commodity in this day. Please pass on my thanks to all involved in solving my problem. Rest assured that I will tout your company and it's products. Again, thanks.”

Terry B

“I am not connected whatsoever with Guitammer but because of the service received, and they certainly did not have to, I would like to give thanks to their management.

I am getting a new one [amplifier with the correct voltage] tomorrow thanks to the unbelievable customer care by Guitammer and their UK rep Network Music, both of whom had no connection with my original [erroneous] purchase.”

Peter, UK customer
